CITY OF BOSTON IN CITY COUNCIL

IN THE YEAR TWO THOUSAND TWENTY ONE

HOME RULE PETITION

WHEREAS: In the lead-up to the 1976 Bicentennial fifty years ago, Boston led the way as one of the first cities to begin landmarking buildings for the purpose of historical preservation, with the Boston Landmarks Commission created by state legislation in 1975 largely in response to widespread demolitions of historical buildings; and

WHEREAS: Since then, there has been no update to the Landmark Commission's enabling legislation to allow for preservation of a more diverse set of buildings, despite recognition by the historic preservation community of a greater regard for local community history; and

WHEREAS: Due to state law, only individual buildings with significance above the local level may be landmarked, which makes it very difficult to protect many buildings important to the history of Boston's historically Black or immigrant neighborhoods, leaving only the usually futile option of demolition delay for communities seeking to preserve the structures that are important to them; and

WHEREAS: A minor change in the definition of landmarks in the Boston Landmark Commission's enabling legislation would give the Commission a greater ability to designate sites particularly important to Boston's history as landmarks and to more fully preserve and honor a history that includes all Bostonians, not only white, affluent, and well-known historical figures; NOW THEREFORE BE IT

ORDERED: That a petition to the General Court, accompanied by a bill for a special law relating to the City of Boston to be filed with an attested copy of this Order be, and hereby is, approved under Clause One (1) of Section Eight (8) of Article Two (2), as amended, of the Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to the end that legislation be adopted precisely as follows, except for clerical or editorial changes of form only.

PETITION FOR A SPECIAL LAW RE: AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE BOSTON
