Discussion: Subpoena Powers

The Commission discussed Section 12-16.4 of the OPAT Ordinance, outlining the Powers and Duties of the Commission, including subpoena authority.

Discussion also centered around the public's interest in OPAT's subpoena powers and circumstances under which subpoena authority should be exercised.

Motion: To authorize the Executive Director to issue subpoenas for routine matters without requiring a two-thirds Commission vote

- Moved by: Samuel Harold
 - Seconded by: Anthony Fugate
 - Vote: Evandro Carvalho (yes) Samuel Harold (yes) Anthony Fugate (yes)
Motion unanimously passed.

Discussion: BPD Commissioner's Responses to Board Decisions

The Commission discussed Section 12-16.11(e) of the OPAT Ordinance regarding the Civilian Review Board process, emphasizing that the Police Commissioner must either accept or reject the CRB's disciplinary recommendations and provide written reasoning if recommendations are not adopted.

The Commission reviewed Commissioner's responses in the past year and expressed concern over the four recent responses OPAT received from the BPD Commissioner. These responses indicated that sustained cases from May 15, 2025 had been referred to the Internal Affairs Division (IAD) for further review. The Commission addressed how the sustained findings of the CRB and IAOP remain binding and cannot be overturned by the BPD Commissioner.

Discussion: Response Timeline for BPD to Respond to OPAT Boards' Decisions

The Commission discussed establishing a reasonable timeline for BPD to reply to the Boards Findings and Recommendations to promote efficiency and accountability.

Motion: Establishing a 45-day response window for the BPD Commissioner to reply to CRB findings/recommendations.

- Moved by: Samuel Harold
- Seconded by: Anthony Fugate
- Vote: Evandro Carvalho (yes) Samuel Harold (yes) Anthony Fugate (yes)
Motion unanimously passed.

The Commission emphasized that while BPD retains discretion in implementing recommended disciplines, the CRB's findings should remain unchanged following the Board's vote and stressed the importance of BPD providing clear reasoning for any departures from CRB's recommended discipline.

Motion: To authorize the Executive Director to send a letter to the BPD Commissioner outlining the new rule that BPD must not alter CRB findings and must respond to recommendations within 45 days, providing written reasoning for any disagreement.

Moved by: Samuel Harold

Seconded by: Anthony Fugate

Vote: Evandro Carvalho (yes) Samuel Harold (yes) Anthony Fugate (yes)

Motion unanimously passed.
